

The national flag of Kenya

The flag of Kenya was first adopted in 1963. The colour black symbolizes the majority population, colour red symbolizes the bloodshed during the fight for freedom and green represents the land. The white borders symbolize peace and honesty. The black, red, and white traditional Maasai shield and two spears symbolize the defense of all the things mentioned above.

Kenyan flag

←black

←white

←red

←white

←green

Very similar to and not to be confused with these flags:

Malawi

South Sudan

